

Recurrent Miscarriage

A Clinical Approach

A phone seminar with Francesca Naish

Based on the experience of Francesca and her naturopathic and medical associates at the Jocelyn Centre, this seminar will cover a clinical approach to the diagnosis and holistic treatment of recurrent miscarriage, with particular emphasis on the role of auto-immune conditions, age, and the role of the father.

WHEN: Tuesday 9th June 2009 7pm-8.30pm

COST: $49.95 (Including GST)

WHY: Of all the many causes of recurrent miscarriage, few are generally well diagnosed or treated, with the focus usually on maternal hormonal and uterine health. Far from being “just one of those things – better luck next time”, recurrent miscarriage can be not only deeply traumatic but also require quite in depth investigation. The role of the father is particularly badly understood and frequently neglected. Since ageing parents are not only at greater risk, but also particularly impatient to conceive, the importance of thorough preconception health care is a particular concern. Recent advances in the understanding of the role of the immune system are well diagnosed through medical pathology, but require an holistic, integrated approach to treatment.

Francesca Naish is a naturopath and herbalist with over 30 years experience in practice, helping women and their partners find holistic, natural, non-invasive answers to their contraception, reproductive health and fertility issues. She pioneered and founded Natural Fertility Management, a company which researches and promotes these methods and treatments in Australia and internationally. She is Director of the Jocelyn Centre, Australia’s first clinic devoted to helping women and couples manage their fertility effectively and conceive healthy, happy children naturally. Through her company Natural Fertility Management, she trains health professionals in Australia and overseas in her methods and frequently appears on the radio, TV and in the press, and is a popular speaker and lecturer.
